Issue 1 April 2012

Welcome to the Classic-Motorbikes.net April newsletter, the first of many we plan to send to you on a monthly basis. If you are a regular visitor to the site, then you will already know the huge changes we have made in the last few weeks. Scores of new road tests and articles about the classic scene, and the machines we love the most, have been added with hundreds more waiting in the wings and ready to publish. As you may expect, all those who create the site are hardened bike nuts who live, breathe and sleep all things two wheeled, and we have a strong desire to make this the very best resource for motorcycles ever compiled on the web.

Over the upcoming months expect to see a unique insight into some rare race machines, and also more of the popular restoration articles, covering Classic-Motorbikes.net members toils and labour to create those stunning best in show motorcycles. As the site grows we aim to be the most concise collection of information for all things classic, professional articles, stunning photography, downloadable manuals and even technical help will all be on hand for the members of Classic-Motorbikes.net.

It really is a good idea to subscribe to the site as this is just the beginnings of something we feel will be very special so do spread the word.

Please feel free to get in touch and tell us what you think or what you want to see for the future.
